Nikki Woods

My family has called Gingin home for over 20 years, I am an active community member and have volunteered at Gingin Fire & Rescue for 15 years, 11 of those as Captain.

I am a mother of 2 adult children and a grandmother of 2. Family means the world to me.

Currently I work in an administration role in Wannamal and have a passion in photography, I have won both state and national photography awards, I was also nominated and won the 2018 WA Excellence in Volunteer Management Award

My husband and I own and run a couple of small businesses within the shire

I am focussed on improving all aspects of the shire and will look at all current and future projects, and I will work hard for community to achieve the desired results.

If elected as a councillor I believe I would bring energy, honesty, leadership and hard work to the role, I thrive working in a team environment.

I am passionate about the shire and its future and would really appreciate your vote, together we can make a difference.
